PHLOX SUFFRUTICOSA PRINCESS INGRID

A new pink Miss Lingard, not like Mrs. Verboom, Burns, Rosalinda or all the other so-called pink Miss Lingards, which are nothing but dirty lavenders, this is a real-to-goodness apple blossom-pink, a color sorely needed in this early blooming Phlox.

Rather than sell the entire stock to a large concern we decided to distribute it ourselves at reasonable prices. So order a few and give it another try.
